To whom it may concern,

Enough already. Get off of Bill Gates' and Microsoft's case. Let's get back to supply and demand. Quit punishing success. Let the consumer decide. If a computer company gets too much out of hand Americans will quit buying. We don't need a Big Brother holding our hand as we navigate the Internet etc. I feel like you have punished me as much as Microsoft and Bill Gates. He has done more to advance the use of computers in the home than anyone else in the world. It's time to free up Department of Justice resources to pursue antitrust violations that currently harm the public.
